U.S. ATTORNEY SUBPOENA ISSUED

City Attorney Releases Subpoena to Media

Under the California Public Records Act, several news organizations have requested a copy of the subpoena issued today, June 10, 2005, by the U.S. Attorney's Office, requesting that the City of San Diego produce all documents and communications dating from January 1, 2000, to the present that concern the salaries, benefits, and wages paid to the following individuals and/or their spouses:

Deputy City Manager Bruce Herring, former City Human Resources Director Cathy Lexin, former Auditor and Comptroller Ed Ryan, Firefighter Captain Ronald Saathoff, former Assistant Auditor and Comptroller Terri Webster, Development Services employee (spouse of Teri Webster) Russell Webster, and Real Estates Assets employee (spouse of Cathy Lexin) Madison Wiggins.

The U.S. Attorney's Office requests that these documents and communications include but not be limited to W-2 forms, payroll data, direct deposit documents, pay stubs, and data relating to the "DROP" program. The City is to produce these items by June 23, 2005.
